2020 Poverty Symposium

January 30, 2020

Dear Community Partner:

Community Action Partnership of San Bernardino County (CAPSBC) is pleased to announce our upcoming 2020 Poverty Symposium on Friday, April 17, 2020 at the Dorothy Inghram Learning Center, 670 E. Carnegie Drive, in San Bernardino from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. CAPSBC, along with a premier group of collaborative partners, is hosting the symposium to take an in-depth look at poverty and discuss proven strategies that have had an impact on economic opportunity. We would like to invite you to participate as a sponsor of this engaging event!

The 2020 Poverty Symposium will feature an interactive poverty simulation to give policy makers a look at the complexities of poverty. It will bridge the gap between misconception and understanding. A distinguished keynote speaker, Denise Harlow, Chief Executive Officer of the National Community Action Partnership, and a group of expert panelists from local organizations will discuss current local programs aimed at addressing the effects of poverty.

We request that you review and consider our various sponsorship opportunities and benefits in the attached document. We look forward to your response and support of our event. If you would like more information, please contact Xiomara Henriquez-Ortega, Manager of Administrative Support at (909) 723-1525 or by email at xhenriquez@capsbc.org.

Sincerely,

Patricia L. Nichols-Butler
